

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES.

of Mercer county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional district of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

In a bitter attack on President Roosevelt in the Senate Saturday Senator Bailey charged that the Executive had surrendered his position advocating "an effective measure," and had abandoned his demands for tariff revision. The Texas Senator charged that the President's arraignment of trusts had been made after his election and that before that time he had been as "silent as the grave" on the subject of regulating the railroads. During the day Senator Tillman read a statement showing, as he termed it, the President's "change of front" on the Rate Bill.

In a personal letter to a friend in Chicago, written from Egypt, Mr. Bryan says he is satisfied that the things he fought for are growing and that right will yet prevail. He further says that he will do nothing to secure another nomination and does not want it unless circumstances demand it. Looks now like Mr. Bryan will be the nominee whether he wants the nomination for president or not. No man is so close to the democratic hearts as the great Nebraskan and they delight in making him their standard bearer whether he wins or not.

The Republicans of Ohio are preparing to file a mandamus suit to oust Governor Pattison on the grounds that he is mentally and physically disqualified from performing the duties of his office, and let the Lieutenant Governor, who is a Republican, fill the position. Gov. Pattison is a sick man but he is said to be in full possession of his mental faculties. If they should succeed in ousting Governor Pattison it will prove a boomerang. It would defeat the Republican ticket next fall as sure as shot.

The authorities at Philadelphia believe in heroic remedies. The discovery of a virulent case of small-pox under circumstances indicating that hundreds of persons might have been exposed, created an emergency that demanded prompt action, which was taken by the Department of Public Health and Charities, ably supported by the police. A section containing nearly 2,000 people was roped off and guarded by police, and 1,500 people were vaccinated whether they wished to be or not.

A compromise was reached between the cow and anti-cow factions at Hopkinsville by which the ordinance forbidding cows to roam on the streets will be enforced after June 1. The ordinance has been in the courts for several months and the whole town was divided. If you have a cow and are unfortunate enough to have no place to graze her, send her down to Hopkinsville for pasturage.

The Southern Mutual Investment Co. and its dependencies seem to have wound its tentacles over most of the United States, each of which has either appointed or is preparing to appoint a receiver. There are enough of them already to form a union. The fetching quality of three to one is too much for the average sucker.

In a senatorial speech in the Senate, Senator Bailey referred to the president as "only clay, and very common clay at that." The Texas Senator has a way of telling the truth, it matters not who it helps or hurts.

THERE are 144 saloons in Lexington and other places where you can get liquor. The saloonkeepers have raised $3,500 to test the Sunday closing law.

The Republican Executive Committees in each county in Kentucky met Saturday for the purpose of raising money to prosecute suits in resistance of the redistricting of the congressional, senatorial and legislative districts of the State.
